

THE NEXT PIECE?

Coproducing homelessness services

- What is coproduction?
- Is it different from service user involvement?
- How does it fit with homelessness services?

Come along to:

- Meet other people working and living with homelessness
- Enjoy a great lunch and some musical entertainment

Free event – everyone welcome!

What's the day about?

Over time, there's been many changes in how services are designed and delivered – from something we did to people, then for people and now with people. The ideas behind coproduction build on this change. This year's conference will explore what coproduction really means, what it might offer us – and whether it could transform how we tackle homelessness in Scotland.

Tuesday 24th March 2015 10am-3pm

Adelaide's, Bath Street, Glasgow

It helps if we know you are coming and if there is anything we can do that would help you attend. Please let us know by Tuesday 17th March 2015. If you are a service user, public transport expenses will be reimbursed (don't forget your receipt!).
